You might have seen them in your part of town... long-retired US military veterans who flock together and talk about the good old days or share war stories with each other and people who pass by. They served their country honorably many years ago, and wish to have the younger generations serve as well.

They tend to be unofficial recruiters. :)

Wanna be a doctor? Join the military (choose branch of service) first. It'll help you become a good doctor!

Wanna be an business owner? Join the military first.

Astronaut? Join the military first.

Professor? Join the military.

Actor? Join.

Mechanic? Join.

Underwater basket weaver? Just join.

You know the drill.

... And yes, I was suckered into that spiel as well and enlisted in the Marines. Go figure. (^^,
